Pier Giorgio Frassati is situated in the social and political upheaval of early twentieth century Italy. The Roman Catholic Church read the warning signs of atheistic Marxism. Mussolini filled Italy's political vacuum with fascists and Rome was still Italy's disputed capital. The biography draws from a synopsis of selected letters and witness accounts revealing Pier Giorgio's increasing engagement with the world around him shaped by his spiritual life. Pier Giorgio belonged to an upper middle class family and his parents transmitted fundamental values of truth, courage and justice. Although he was deeply loved by his parents, they did not share his religious zeal. Pier Giorgio was concerned about helping the poor in the slums of Turin, the needy German students in Berlin, but especially in contributing to world peace. His spiritual maturity was expressed by making sacrifices. His friendship with a young lady offered up bidding farewell to his best friend leaving for the Air Force, watching his sister depart once married, and his career in mining engineering abandoned. Pier Giorgio stood alone. He remained at home for the good of his parents to ensure peace and unity. He died at twenty-four years old.
